

Let the people chose with there money. If people choose to pay for XM then let xm provide the best service possible. The local radios stations will learn to adapt and will become stronger through the added pressure competition.